Poughkeepsie City School District Staff:

Today, Governor Cuomo announced that New York State's schools are to remain closed for the rest of the academic year. As we are committed to our children, Poughkeepsie City School District will continue to provide students with instruction via Google Classroom platform, free breakfast and lunch, and facilitate childcare for first responders and healthcare workers.

As we receive additional information from the Office of the Governor and New York State Department of Education staff will be updated.

Be safe and thank you for all that you do to support Poughkeepsie City School District students.

Yours in Education,
