March 16, 2020

Good afternoon Poughkeepsie City School District Parents,

This is Dr. Eric Jay Rosser, Superintendent of Schools, with an update on the District's plan for providing students with instructional materials and student meals during the two-week suspension of student instruction and extracurricular activity.

Beginning tomorrow, March 17, 2020 students will be able to access breakfast and lunch using the following schedule:

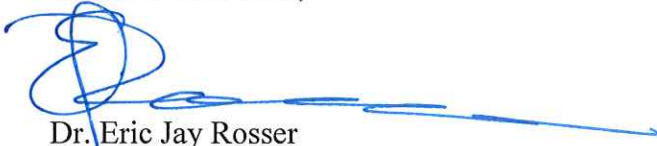

9:00 am – 10:00 am	11:00 am – 12:00 noon
Hudson Gardens 120 Hudson Ave.	Poughkeepsie High School 70 Forbus St.
Thurgood Marshall Terrace 109 Delafield St.	Eastman Tower Montgomery St.
MLK Garden Apartments 159 Washington St.	Rip Van Winkle Tower Main St. and Rinaldi Blvd.
Dr. Joseph Brady Apartments 11 Boulevard Knolls	Harriet Tubman Apts. Jefferson St. and Church St.

Additionally, students will be able to access instructional materials during this period as early as Wednesday, March 18, 2020. Your child's school will be communicating with you via school messenger the exact date and times that instructional materials will be available. The district is also planning to upload these materials to both the district and school websites.

During this State of Emergency the district will be partnering with members of our community to identify opportunities to enhance students' learning and positive youth development. As these partnerships and opportunities are solidified information will be posted to our website.

I thank you for your partnership. Through our collaboration our students will continue to excel.

Yours in Education,

Dr. Eric Jay Rosser
Superintendent of Schools
